

Material on these pages is copyright © The Archbishops' Council of the Church of England or reproduced with permission from other copyright owners. The text may be downloaded and printed for personal reference or for local non-commercial reproductions in printed form which comply with the conditions for use set out in the A Brief Guide to Liturgical Copyright without an application for copyright permission or payment of a fee, provided such editions conform to the following copyright conditions:

- The text must not be altered in any way.
- The copies are not sold.
- The name of the parish, team or group ministry, cathedral or institution is to be shown on the front cover (or first page if there is no cover). In the case of a single occasion use, the date of the service must also be included.
- In the case of reproduction for repeated use the number of copies made from the same original is not to exceed 500.
- The correct copyright acknowledgement must be included, as specified in A Brief Guide to Liturgical Copyright.

Any reproduction which is not in accord with these requirements must not be undertaken unless permission has been obtained in advance from the Archbishops' Council, and the Council reserves the right to take action in respect of any infringement of copyright. Applications for permission should be addressed to: The Copyright and Contracts Administrator, The Archbishops' Council, Church House, Great Smith Street, London SW1P 3AZ (e-mail: copyright@churchofengland.org).

In addition, material from this site may also be reproduced on another web site subject to the following conditions:

- Such reproduction is for non-commercial purposes only and otherwise complies (in so far as they can apply in the context of a web publication) with the conditions set out in A Brief Guide to Liturgical Copyright.
- The text must be reproduced exactly as it appears on this site and must not be altered in any way.
- Reproduction on another site of material from this site must be accompanied by a clear hyperlink to this site (<http://www.churchofengland.org/>).
- The material on this site may not otherwise be copied, altered in any way, transmitted to others or reproduced as part of any commercial service (including any software program, app or other similar product) without prior written permission from The Copyright and Contracts Administrator, The Archbishops' Council, Church House, Great Smith Street, London, SW1P 3AZ. The Daily Prayer text feed is supplied subject to the following specific terms and conditions:

Use of the Daily Prayer 'feed' must be for non-commercial purposes only and must comply (in so far as can apply in the context of a web publication) with the conditions set out in A Brief Guide to Liturgical Copyright.

2. Links to the Daily Prayer 'feed' must be accompanied on the same page by a clear hyperlink that uses the wording "Daily Prayer provided by the official Church of England web site, © The Archbishops' Council of the Church of England, 2002-2004." and is linked to <http://www.churchofengland.org/prayer-worship/join-us-in-daily-prayer.aspx>
3. The link itself on your page may be an image and/or wording of your own choosing, provided that any images or wording that you use are appropriate. We reserve the right to request alterations to images and/or wording when the site is checked.
4. The material on this site may not otherwise be copied, altered in any way, transmitted to others or reproduced as part of any commercial service without prior written permission from The Copyright and Contracts Administrator, The Archbishops' Council, Church House, Great Smith Street, London, SW1P 3AZ (copyright@churchofengland.org).
5. Hypertext links to other web sites from your web site will not constitute any endorsement or authorization by The Archbishops' Council.
6. Please email us at copyright@churchofengland.org when your site goes live with the Daily Prayer 'feed'. It will allow us to create a directory of sites using the 'feed' and to check that our terms and conditions are being satisfied.
7. You are free to use a frameset or other web design methods to make the 'feed' appear to be part of your web site, provided that the copyright wording as specified in point 2 is clearly displayed.
8. The material on this site may not otherwise be copied, altered in any way, transmitted to others or reproduced as part of any commercial service (including any software program, app or other similar product) without prior written permission from The Copyright and Contracts Administrator, The Archbishops' Council, Church House, Great Smith Street, London, SW1P 3AZ. Email copyright@churchofengland.org

Hypertext links to other web sites are for the convenience of users and do not constitute any endorsement or authorization by The Archbishops' Council.

The Daily Prayer audio feeds (for Morning and Evening Prayer and Prayer During the Day and Night Prayer) are supplied subject to the same specific terms and conditions outlined above in regard to the Daily Prayer feed.

Please email us at copyright@churchofengland.org when your site goes live with either of these audio 'feeds'. It will allow us to create a directory of sites using the 'feeds' and to check that our terms and conditions are being satisfied. Please note that the audio and the feed may not be included in any software program, app, or copied/edited for use in any new audio, video or other similar production.
